1. This Office Action is responsive to the Petition received on 06/19/03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 4-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Asano (submitted with IDS received on 06/19/03).

Asano discloses a receiving portion of a radio communication device (Fig. 2) comprising the following claimed limitations: “a base station” and “a plurality of terminals” (col. 1, lines 7-8), “a receiver which receives said spread spectrum signal” (Fig. 2, element 7), “a demodulation unit which demodulates said spread spectrum signal received by the receiver” (Fig. 2, element 7), “a first timer started when said receiver changes from a receiving state to a suspension state” (Fig. 2, element 4, 5), “a second timer started when said receiver changes from the suspension state to the receiving state, wherein an accuracy of the second timer is higher than that of the first timer” (Fig. 2, element 1, 2, col. 6, lines 37-39), “an intermittent receiving controller which controls said receiving state and said suspension state based on the count by the first timer and the second timer” (Fig. 2, element 6), “a calculator which calculates a timing error which occurred due to the first timer” (col. 7, lines 16-24), “said intermittent receiving controller controls a resumption of demodulation operation of the demodulation unit based on the timing
